

The FCC should not implement any proposal that would lessen Indiana's Telephone Privacy law protections. Indiana's Telephone Privacy law has improved my time at home by effectively lowering the amount of unwanted telephone solicitations that I receive. I used to receive 4-5 daily, now I receive none.